Two hours In-house personal styling advice from $250

Shift by Design are Tasmania's leading home staging and property presentation company. We specialise in presenting property to appeal to the widest possible buying audience which often attracts a better selling price and a reduced time on the market.

Shift by Design can assist create a space in your property that buyers can relate to. Through decluttering, space definition and other creative strategies, Shift by Design can showcase your property in its best possible light.

Shift by Design use what is currently in your home and provide inexpensive recommendations that can be completed quickly allowing you to get your property listed as soon as possible.

Should they be needed, Shift by Design can also assist with arranging contractors such as painters, plumbers, electricians, cleaners and handymen.

Home staging is an investment in the sale of your property. Investing two hours with Shift by Design on a property valued at $275,000 is only 0.09% of the selling price. If you were to achieve a higher selling price or sell the property quicker than expected (or more importantly avoid a price reduction) then this small investment pays for itself multiple times over.

Contact Shift by Design for more information on how home staging can help you.
